

BPS Film Night

Friday, 8th February

For the first time, children now have a choice of films to watch on Film Night! Both of the films selected are rated PG* and children are welcome to select either film. However, we would recommend that 'Mamma Mia: Here We Go Again!' is probably aimed more towards our Key Stage Two children.

Head onto ParentPay and select your chosen film to reserve your child's seat for the bargain price of just £3, which will include a snack and a drink. The closing date for reserving a space is Wednesday, 6th February. We will not be able to accept additional children after this date.

Both of these films are slightly longer than our usual selections and so pick-up will be at 5:20 in the school hall.

**A PG film is thought to be appropriate for "General viewing, but some scenes may be unsuitable for young children. A PG film should not unsettle a child aged around eight or older. Unaccompanied children of any age may watch, but parents are advised to consider whether the content may upset younger, or more sensitive, children."*
