

Dear Book Clubbers,

Thank you to everybody who voted for our first Book Club book of the year. It was so close and came down to just two votes in the end!

As you might've guessed by the whopping great image on the right, the winning book is The Highland Falcon Thief by M.G. Leonard & Sam Sedgman!

Our 'meeting' about the book will be on Friday, 15th May so you should try to finish it by then. There are a couple of options for how we'll hold our 'meeting' so please let me know if you're going to be joining the club as this will determine how we manage the session but we're hoping to make it as interactive as possible.

There are a few ways for you to get hold of the book.

- It is currently available to listen to for free on Audible but it does require an adult to create an account beforehand.
- It is available on Kindles and other e-readers for £3.99.
- It is available from Amazon, WHSmith and Waterstone online for £4.99.
- We have a limited number of e-reader copies available to borrow. Please get in touch with Miss Bradley if you would like further details about how to access these.

From the very moment The BPS Book Club was created, it has always been aimed at reading for pleasure. Please do not feel that this is something that you or your child has to take part in as it was always designed to be a little something extra for the book lovers amongst us. It doesn't need to be a solo effort and families are more than welcome to read the book together and share their views with us too.

If The Highland Falcon Thief takes your fancy, drop Miss Bradley an email at abradley@bewdleyprimary.worcs.sch.uk to let her know so that we can make sure you have all the information you'll need about the discussion meeting on Friday, 15th May!

We look forward to hearing your thoughts and opinions!

Many thanks, Miss Bradley and Mrs Brazier
