Spellings for this week

Here are the children's spellings for next week.

The children will be tested on these words on Friday morning.

These are the same spellings as last week as we did not practise these due to Maths Week. We will be testing on these next week.

The class of the week was Bond with 13,498,857 points in a single week!

Details of the Spellings have been emailed to you

Beat That!

Here are the Beat That calculations for next week. The children have been amazing at completing these this week. They have 90 seconds to score as high as possible. Please practise these at home. It really does make a difference 😊

The class of the week this week was Milne AND Bond with equal scores of 858 combined points in 90 seconds!
