

We Sing the River's Voice

Bewdley Schools' CREATIVE Workshop

Tuesday 4th June 4-6pm

St Anne's Primary School

Create and perform new words, sounds and music to celebrate the River Severn

We Sing the River's Voice celebrates the River Severn and all the life that it supports through sound, words, movement & song with young people from Bewdley Schools & the Academy of Vocal Music, vocal improvisers with Ruana Xerri-West, performance poet Sipho Eric Ndlovu, opera singer Martin Robson & pop-up community choir directed by award-winning composer Liz Dilnot Johnson as part of the CARP BEWDLEY RIVER FESTIVAL 2026

This creative workshop is for young people age 8-18 years at Bewdley Schools. We will explore the River Severn through words, sound, movement and music focussing on our hopes, concerns and action for the river's healthy future.

The workshop will lead to a riverside performance on Sunday 7th June 2-3pm For the Creative Workshop you will need to bring:

- your voice and your imagination
- a drink and a snack
- everything else will be provided
