

The Policy of Friday Afternoon at the End of a Heatwave

Thank you for all your hard work this week – it's certainly been one of the toughest!

Have a lovely weekend and see you on Monday!

(Unless you're coming to the carnival tomorrow, in which case thank you very much in advance and sorry for the inevitable amount of sweat we're all going to produce!)

No need to tick to say you've read this 'policy', I'll just presume everyone has!
